UEG Week Virtual 2021
October 3–5

PGT Virtual 2021
October 22–23

Make sure to save the dates – October just got hot.

As one of the most sought-after digestive health events across the globe, UEG Week is back and better than ever in virtual format October 3 – 5, 2021!

Our renowned Postgraduate Teaching Programme also arrives in October. Stepping back onto the scene October 22 – 23, 2021, the PGT returns to its CME accredited 3-year curriculum – now for the first time in an exciting virtual format!

The art of abstracts: Science is best when shared.

Mark your calendar! Abstract submission for UEG Week Virtual 2021 will be open February 22 – April 9, 2021. With our congress in a virtual format, this year is truly your opportunity to share your voice, your research and your science with the entire world.

We look forward to researchers from all backgrounds and locations utilising UEG Week Virtual 2021 as the premier platform to submit and present their digestive health research. We encourage you to share your findings for the benefit of both your professional development and the digestive health community.
