Read our new 'Mistakes in...' Nutrition in IBD article

A new UEG Education Mistakes in... article is now available on the UEG Website!

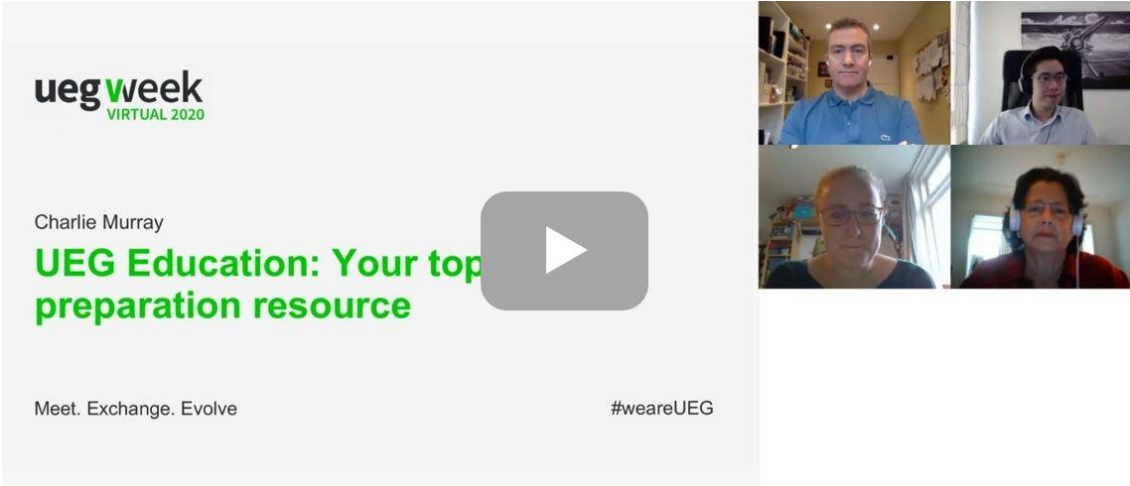

There has long been interest in the relationship between nutrition and IBD. In the latest article in our series, authors Joseph Meredith, Konstantinos Gerasimidis and Richard K Russell draw on their extensive clinical and research experience in the field to explain how appropriate implementation of nutritional strategies can achieve IBD treatment 'targets' and optimise other crucial aspects of care, such as growth, bone health, body composition and overall well-being.

Prepare for your GI board exam with UEG Education

The European Specialty Examination in Gastroenterology and Hepatology (ESEGH) is a high quality, reliable examination, and passing it is a demonstration of having achieved the knowledge described in the ESBGH curriculum (also known as the, "Blue Book", a Europe-wide description of the level expected of a specialist in Gastroenterology and Hepatology).

The next ESEGH will take place on April 7, 2021.
Registration is open from December 16, 2020 – January 13, 2021.

Use UEG Online Education resources to prepare best for the exam, by filtering the topics that you know least about and studying hard. We also recommend that you watch the recording of our recent Best of PGT session, where UEG Education Committee Chair, Charles Murray and other experts share valuable tips on how to prepare for the GI board exam using UEG resources.
